

Education for safety

profile	general academics
degree	first degree
programme	ERASMUS
semester	1
part time / full time	full time
ECTS	2
coordinator	st. bryg. dr hab. Izabella Grabowska-Lepczak

form of the activity: exercise

hours	15
prerequisites	no requirements
objectives	Mastering specialist knowledge in the field of public education in the field of safety. As part of the course, students will acquire the appropriate knowledge necessary to apply appropriate forms of education to various social groups, and above all to residents of areas particularly exposed to the occurrence of extraordinary situations.
methods	lecture, discussion
own work	Studying the literature, developing the indicated issues (solving the problem) with justification for the exercises.
basic literature	- Safety education impact and good practice: A review, http://dx.doi.org/10.1108/09654281211190236 - A. Pieczywok, Safety education in the face of threats to human security - I. Grabowska-Lepczak, The use of modern technologies in education for safety and the effectiveness of undertaken activities
supplementary literature	-I. Grabowska-Lepczak, The Role of Education in Shaping Safe Behaviours and Attitudes in the Aspect of Sustainable Development

contents	hours
1) Designing national and regional programs aimed at education for security. 2) Analysis of available safety education programmes 3) Evaluation and analysis of available social campaigns on safety 4) Methodology of creating social campaigns. Using the SMART method.	15
5) Tools of social campaigns. 6) Family emergency plan 7) Project of the information campaign - presentation.	15

form of the activity: exercise

hours	15
-------	----

prerequisites	no requirements
objectives	Mastering specialist knowledge in the field of public education in the field of safety. As part of the course, students will acquire the appropriate knowledge necessary to apply appropriate forms of education to various social groups, and above all to residents of areas particularly exposed to the occurrence of extraordinary situations.
methods	lecture, discussion
own work	Studying the literature, developing the indicated issues (solving the problem) with justification for the exercises.
basic literature	- Safety education impact and good practice: A review, http://dx.doi.org/10.1108/09654281211190236 - A. Pieczywok, Safety education in the face of threats to human security - I. Grabowska-Lepczak, The use of modern technologies in education for safety and the effectiveness of undertaken activities
supplementary literature	-I. Grabowska-Lepczak, The Role of Education in Shaping Safe Behaviours and Attitudes in the Aspect of Sustainable Development

contents	hours
1) The concept of public safety education. 2) Modern forms and tools of safety education. 3) Applying appropriate forms of education to various social groups, and above all to residents of areas particularly exposed to extraordinary situations.	15
4) Designing national and regional programs aimed at education for security. 5) Education for the safety of selected target groups 6) anti-terrorist education	15